GENERAL PUBLIC

John Fiorill stated that the Special Investigation Department of the State Police has closed the forensic analyses case with no criminal charges after one year. He would like it noted that the forensic audit cost around $10,000.00 and the blue paper has been dismissed as false and malicious.

Non Resident Diane Carter was allowed to speak at the meeting, she stated that she was mentioned in the blue paper and she was harassed by Ben Vonderheide while working. She also stated her intent to litigation against the Township.

Rae Ann Henry stated that she was disgusted with the Township spending money on printing the blue paper. The Township Solicitor explained that it was part of the minutes.

Jim Caldwell presented site plans for the Erb's farmhouse on Sandhill road for some restoration. The Board informed Caldwell he will need to run the plans by the Township Engineer for review.

Terry Shepps inquired about information on past auditors for the Commission.

Fire Chief Larry Frankford gave the Volunteer Fire Company's end of year report; a copy of the report is available at the Township Office.

Fire Chief Frankford also informed the Residence of the need for Volunteers. Anyone interested is welcome to attend the Fire Co. meetings held every Monday at 7pm at the Fire Hall.

Robin Maquire expressed her dissatisfaction with the Fire Department in regards to her volunteering with them.

Towards the end of the meeting several residents became disruptive, making comments without being recognized by the Board and while the BOS was attempting to conduct Township Business. The Supervisors and Twp. Solicitor requested that the residents settle down and act in an orderly fashion or they will be removed from the meeting. The residents continued the disruptive behavior shouting out comments, so the BOS finished its business and concluded the meeting.
